++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with patchy rain will clear to brighter weather.

Today:
Cloudy with patchy light rain at first, drier for the Lothian's. Rain mostly dying out in the afternoon with some brighter weather through the afternoon apart from exposed west coasts where cloud and drizzle may persist. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain and foggy, misty conditions for west coastal areas but some evening sunshine for most inland areas. Some low cloud will drift inland overnight with fog forming too. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Wednesday:
Quite a cloudy start in the west, sunny spells further east. Brightening up for Dumfries and Galloway too but some coastal areas may struggle to lose the cloud. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Light rain and cloudy on Thursday, likely to be an improving picture especially for the Lothians. Drier and brighter on Friday but cloud and rain expected on Saturday.
